

LONDON BRIDGE Kings College

Kings College, 165 Great Dover Street, London, SE1 4XA

VENUE

The London Bridge centre is right in the very heart of London, offering residential accommodation and teaching facilities of the highest quality. The accommodation is located in a purpose built residential complex offering superb quality en-suite single study bedrooms surrounding a tree-lined central courtyard. The teaching campus is a 10 minute walk away at the world-famous King's College Guy's Hospital campus next to London Bridge tube/train station. This centre is ideal for all students and groups wanting a sightseeing programme based in central London. A zone 1 travel card is included in the package price.

Age Range: 12-18

Dates 2010: 4th July - 29th August

Accommodation

Single en-suite study bedrooms in apartments of 3—9 bedrooms with shared kitchen/common rooms in a secure purpose built university residence. All catering is taken on the teaching campus a 10 minute walk away. Common room and self service laundry on residential campus.

Sports and Recreation Facilities

There are no sports facilities at this centre—the activity programme is based around sightseeing. 3 evening activities per week including 2 discos in a city centre nightclub. Individual students supervised on campus on other evenings.

Getting around

Both residence and teaching campus are located in Zone 1. A daily travel card is included in the package price. The teaching campus is next to London Bridge tube/station and the residence is a few minutes walk from Borough tube station
