

LONDON HAMPSTEAD Kings College

Kings College, Kidderpore Avenue, London, NW3 7ST

The EAC summer school takes place at King's College University of London in Hampstead. The compact campus is located just north of central London in one of the most exclusive neighbourhoods that the capital has to offer; Hampstead village is home to many of Britain's rich and famous.

This centre is ideal for all students and groups wanting a sightseeing programme in central London, but want the added security of a base that is just a little outside the hectic activity of zone 1. Daily Zone 1—2 travel card included in package price

Age Range: 12-18

Dates 2010: 4th July - 29th August

Accommodation

Most rooms are single study bedrooms although some twin rooms are also available, All rooms have their own wash basins and are arranged in a traditional halls of residence style.

Sports and Recreation Facilities

There are no sports facilities at this centre and the programme is based around London sight-seeing. Self service laundry, public telephones, student common room, with games room, bar and disco area for evening activities. Students attend international student disco in city centre nightclub.

Getting around

The Hampstead Campus is conveniently located 15 minutes walk (or 5 minutes bus ride) from Finchley Road tube station on the Jubilee Line in zone 2, and so is within easy reach of the centre of London and all that the city has to offer. Travel card included in package price Monday - Friday .
